Godly Play Training Development Day

A day to help you develop your skills with Godly Play

Date - Saturday 12 June 2010

Time - 10.00am - 3.00pm

Location - London Diocesan House, Pimlico

Cost - £30 for day.

Places are limited to 20, so book early!

The Day

Many schools and parishes in London have had great success using Godly Play as a way of engaging children with sacred stories. This day is for those already using this method to help them hone and develop their skills.

The day will give you a chance to take a step back from the busyness of children's work and take time to think and reflect and develop your skills.

Places are limited to 20 to ensure that you get the most from this excellent session. They will be allocated on a first come, first served basis so book early to avoid disappointment.

Alison Seaman will host the day. She is one of Godly Play UK's nationally recognised trainers and comes with a wealth of experience in using Godly Play in a parish settings.

What is Godly Play

The Heart of Godly Play

- Creating Sacred Space
- Building and working in community
- Learning religious language
- Using religious language to make meaning

A Godly Play session includes a time to... get ready

tell a story using objects and artefacts explore the story more with open questions and discussion respond with a free choice using a variety of materials - art... silence... play...writing...

enjoy a simple feast and sharing

Imagine someone who....

creates a space to think big learns as well as teaches doesn't always know the answer builds a community

enables children to make connections is open to the unexpected slows down the pace

provides the tools then stands back

Imagine an approach to Christian nurture and education that...

promotes knowledge, skills empathy, spiritual growth develops the needs of the whole child provides a multi-sensory approach to learning develops language and communication skills develops thinking skills

provides depth and reflection in every session
