webcast live to
St Paul's Institute
London

23rd October 2009

We are delighted to invite you to a Conference, 'Building an ethical economy: theology and the market place' which will be webcast from Trinity Institute, New York on Thursday 28th and Friday 29th January 2010 from 2.00pm until 10.00pm (London time). There will be keynote speakers including Archbishop Rowan Williams and the Cambridge economist Sir Partha Dasgupta. Questions will be delivered and answered in real time.

The Conference represents a major opportunity for theological reflection on the shape of our common economic future.

See www.trinitywallstreet.org/faith/institute/ for fuller details.

The webcast conference will be delivered by St Mary-le-Bow and JustShare in partnership with St Paul's Cathedral Institute at The Wren Suite in the crypt of the Cathedral. While conference members are naturally encouraged to attend as much of the event as possible, we envisage that participants will want to hear speeches and take part in discussions within their own timetable.

The cost for registration will be £20 and we are grateful to Sion College for assisting with some core costs and for the hospitality of the Dean and Chapter of St Paul's.

If you would like to register or to ask any questions please email matthewpower@stmarylebow.org.uk
